

This large drone will patrol the Maasai Mara conservancies and parks to interrupt and catch poachers, alert community of encroaching wildlife, turn encroaching elephants, deliver IV fluids and medicines to injured animals and humans, record night surveillance, live feed safaris, and other conservation efforts. The drone is fully controlled by specially trained pilots and is in constant contact with pilots and rangers.